2. She loved him yesterday.
He laid her sister, she said O.K.
An that's all right.
Buried her things today
Way back out deep behind the driveway.
And that's all right.

Handwritten musical notation for a guitar piece. The top staff shows a melody with chords G5, C, G5(type 2), and C. The bottom staff shows a bass line with fret numbers and slurs.

The musical score for 'The Rose Tree' is presented in two systems. The first system consists of a vocal line and a guitar line. The vocal line begins with a treble clef, a key signature of one sharp (F#), and a common time signature (C). It features a melody with various ornaments and dynamics, including 'P.M.' (Pizzicato), 'sl.' (Sul ponticello), and 'P.M.' (Pizzicato). The guitar line is written on a six-string guitar staff, showing fret numbers and techniques like 'P.M.' (Pizzicato) and 'sl.' (Sul ponticello). The second system continues the guitar line, with fret numbers and techniques like 'P.M.' (Pizzicato) and 'sl.' (Sul ponticello). The score is a transcription of a piece from the 'Guitar for Dummies' book, showing the relationship between the vocal melody and the guitar accompaniment.

The musical score consists of two staves. The top staff is a treble clef with a key signature of one sharp (F#). It contains a melody line with various articulations: slurs, accents, and dynamic markings like p, f, sl., and Full. Above the staff, there are chord symbols: Sva-, E5^{II}, D5, A5^V, and F#5^{II}. The bottom staff is a fretboard diagram corresponding to the first six strings of the guitar. It shows fingerings (e.g., 17, 15, 14, 15, 14, 13, 14, 13, 12, 13, 12) and fret numbers (19, 16, 19, 17, 18, 16, 17, 16, 19). The diagram is divided into measures by vertical bar lines.
